

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

PUBLISHED BY THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH PULITZER, President.
[Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis, Mo., as second-class mail matter.]

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year, postage paid.....$5.00
Six months.....3.00
Three months.....1.50
One month......50
One month (delivered by carrier)......65
By the week (delivered by carrier)......15
Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

THE WEEKLY.
One year, postage paid.....$1.00
Six months......60
All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed
POST-DISPATCH,
515 and 517 Market street.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.
Editorial Rooms.....501
Business Office.....558
London Office, 35 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross.

TWELVE PAGES

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1887.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

EXPOSITION—Open daily from 9 a. m. to 10:30 p. m.
CABLE AMPHITHEATRE—Last days of Pompeii.
GRAND—A Home Run.
OLYMPIA—Nat Goodwin in "Turned Up."
POPE'S—Dan Sullivan in "Daddy Nola."
PROCTOR'S—Michael Strogoff.
STAYLAND—Japanese Troops and Specialty Co.
CASINO—Novelty Combination.

THE FALL FESTIVITIES.

DAILY PROGRAMME.

Post Headquarters.
Frank P. Blair Post, No. 1, at Masonic Hall,
Seventh and Market streets.
Gen. Lyon Post, No. 2, at Wentworth Hall, Eighth and Franklin avenues.
Hanselwood Post, No. 13, at St. Louis Hotel, Fourth and Chestnut avenues.
H. P. Harding Post, No. 107, at North St. Louis
Turn Hall, Fourteenth and Salisbury streets.
Nelson Post, No. 351, at Arsenal Hall, Fourth and Washington avenues.

Grand Army Week.

Monday, Sept. 26, Reception of visiting comrades—Parade at 10 a. m.—Meeting and muster of Frank P. Blair Post in the evening.
Tuesday, Sept. 27, Reception of visiting comrades—Parade at 10 a. m.—Reception of the Grand Army of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Wednesday, Sept. 28, Opening of the Encampment—Parade at 10 a. m.—Reception of the Grand Army
of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Thursday, Sept. 29, Springfield Day—Excursion to the town of Springfield, Mo.—Reception of the Grand Army of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Friday, Sept. 30, Conclusion of the Grand Army
Encampment and Women's Relief Corps Convention—Parade at 10 a. m.—Reception of the Grand Army
of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Saturday, Oct. 1, Excursion by rail to Nashville, Tenn.—Entertainment at the Nashville Hotel—Reception of the Grand Army of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
On Sunday, Oct. 2, President and his wife will be the guests of the Mayor and Mrs. Francis.

Fair Week.

Monday, Oct. 3, Opening of the Great Fair—Children's day and evening at the fairgrounds—Reception of the Grand Army of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of
the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Tuesday, Oct. 4, Second day of the great fair—Reception of the President in the Federal Building by the United States officials—Reception of the Grand Army
of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Wednesday, Oct. 5, Third day of the great fair—
Reception of the President in the Federal Building by
the United States officials—Reception of the Grand Army
of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Thursday, Oct. 6, Fourth day of the great fair—
Reception of the President in the Federal Building by
the United States officials—Reception of the Grand Army
of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Friday, Oct. 7, Fifth day of the great fair—Reception of the President in the Federal Building by the United States officials—Reception of the Grand Army of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—Entertainment day and evening by local Post.
Saturday, Oct. 8, Sixth and last day of the great fair—Reception of the President in the Federal Building by the United States officials—Reception of the Grand Army of the Republic by the Mayor at the Chamber of Commerce Hall, 530 p. m.—Illumination of the streets—
Entertainment day and evening by local Post.

The indications for twenty-four hours commencing at 3 p. m., to-day for Missouri are: Rain, followed by clear, clearing weather; winds becoming light to fresh northerly.

Old letters, like old muskets, are liable to go off when you think they are not loaded.

Bad weather cannot cool the ardor of the welcome that the city extends to the G. A. R.

Any journalistic clump could see the Thistle's lines after they were raised above the water.

The Virginia Prohibitionists say that they have come to stay. Before this many people thought that they had gone to stay.

PORT SCOTT, Kansas, is still firm in its opposition to mixed schools. Old JOHN BROWN's spirit has quit marching in that neighborhood.

FORAKER's grasping ambition may not permit him to rest satisfied with a snub.
Some day he may fish successfully for an energetic kick.

HUMAN nature turns out to be the same thing in Ohio and Kansas that it is in Georgia. Only a partisan fool or fanatic would have expected anything else.

"The situation," says the Globe-Democrat, "is one with which the Massachusetts Republicans have every reason to "be pleased." It is well for the world that the breed of Mark Tapleys is not yet extinct. The world would be gloomier if these contented fellows should die out. If the Massachusetts Republicans are well pleased with the situation they are philosophers of an advanced school.

WELCOME TO THE VETERANS.

As the great central city of the United States, with a population derived from all of them and accustomed to more intimate social and business relations with both North and South than any other American city, St. Louis extends to the G. A. R.
Veterans such a welcome as can scarcely be duplicated anywhere else.

It is the blended welcome of old comrades and of many thousands who fought against them, but who now accord them not only the gratitude due to magnanimous victors in war but the heartfelt praise which is due them both as brave and patriotic soldiers during four years of terrible strife, and as peace citizens through the long years of peace and progress that have crowned their success as a blessing alike to victor and to vanquished.

It is only among a people nurtured in the spirit of American institutions and traditions that conquering soldiers can receive and appreciate such a welcome.
No tribute wrung from the conquered, no gaudy pageant of civic or military triumph can give such assurance of future peace, happiness and perpetual union.

We are satisfied that the good sense and good feeling of the veterans will prize such a tribute more highly than the over-strained flatteries of the designing politician who would use their organization to grind his political axe, or make it the mere praetorian guard of a party, ready to barter the rule of the Republic for the plunder of its Treasury.

In their hearts they do not believe the politician who tells them that their services were more heroic and their achievements more worthy of gratitude and reward than those of their revered forefathers in the Revolution. When told that the whole country had get down on its knees to them and treat them as a privileged class who cannot ask too much in the way of office, power or emolument, they can honestly answer that they did not fight for that, but to preserve and strengthen the foundation of civil and political equality, on which their fathers built the fabric of the American Union. They know that they have earned and enjoy the gratitude of their country and that they can trust that gratitude to care for them liberally in their declining years. The readiness with which even the South recognizes this obligation to them, and, turning its back on past differences of opinion, hails them now both as brothers and as public benefactors, is a tribute of praise which will ring out in history when all the pensions paid to them are forgotten.

Such are the veterans as judged by the people of St. Louis, regardless of origin or party affiliation, and as such they welcome them to every hospitality and courtesy that her citizens, Southern-born or Northern-born, can show them.

THE G. A. R. ELECTION.

The NEW York delegates to the National Encampment, chosen in February last,
before the agitation over the battle-flag incident and the indignant pension veto broke out, were instructed to support Gen. HENRY W. SLOCUM of Brooklyn for Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R.
Doubtless the chief idea of instructing for him was to show that the honors of the organization were not reserved for its ardent Republican members only.

Though a Democrat, Gen. SLOCUM was not an active politician or extreme partisan. As commander of the left wing of SHERMAN's army in the "march to the sea," he won distinction enough to entitle him to the confidence and support of his veteran comrades. His election after all the partisan agitation that has sprung up in the ranks would be a signal refutation of the charge that the Republican majority in the organization are bent on launching it into party politics as a machine to aid their political party in the next Presidential contest.

Would it not be a wise policy to rebuke and refute at once both the idea that the pension question is a party question, and the idea that the G. A. R. is a partisan organization in which only back seats are reserved for Democrats? Even the vetoed pensions were supported by members of both parties in Congress, and much of the justly great influence of the G. A. R. will be frittered away by identifying it too closely with any political party.

Whether these suggestions meet the views of the majority or not, they are offered in a friendly spirit, and with a sincere wish that the meeting may result in making the country still more kindly disposed towards the veterans as a body, and the G. A. R. stronger rather than weaker.

MURAT HALSTAD of the rabid Commercial Gazette pays a generous tribute to the late Gen. WILLIAM PRESTON as the most "picturesque, historical and imposing" figure in Kentucky politics during recent years, but is wrong in saying that PRESTON nominated BRECKINRIDGE for Vice-President at Cincinnati in 1856. The Kentucky delegation, of which BRECKIN-RIDGE and PRESTON were members, was instructed for Hon. LYNN BOYD, and BRECKINRIDGE's name was presented to the convention by Hon. HENRY HIN-DARD, Chairman of the New Hampshire delegation. BRECKINRIDGE declined and in the name of his State urged the claims of ex-Speaker BOYD. In deference to BRECKINRIDGE's own wish, the vote of Kentucky was given to BOYD until other States had nominated BRECKINRIDGE almost unanimously.

A HARD Republican organ takes advantage of Encampment week to utter a scurrilous slander about Gen. J. C. BLACK, an honored member of the G. A. R., and one of the bravest men that fought for the Union. The organ in question seems to overlook the fact that an old soldier in joining the G. A. R. does not thereby forfeit his right to be a Democrat if his convictions lead him in that direction. If the G. A. R. is not converted into a political machine, a good deal of the coddling it gets from Republican organs will miss the mark.

Mr. BLAINE writes to one of his sons that he is in better health than he has been for ten years. If this rate of improvement keeps up, Mr. BLAINE will be one of the healthiest men in the world
when he gets to be a hundred years old.

The war in Ireland still goes on, but Home Rule and Irish rights cannot be kept ahead of a new order of things may be expected when there shall be another election and a new Parliament.

MR. BLAINE is serenely enjoying himself on the Continent of Europe and has entirely recovered from his Irish fright. He was afraid of Ireland, but can face anything else in the Old World.

MESSRS. STANFORD and HUNTINGTON may escape the punishment which they have earned, but they are getting a salutary shaking up, all the same. There is no doubt about that.

THE Pennsylvania Prohibitionists want to put a tariff on imported snubs. They want the Pennsylvania snub well protected as the Pennsylvania steel rail.

The Rebels and the Anarchists.

From the Chicago Tribune (Rep.)
Ben Butler must live in his grave when he reads the ingenious nonsense he has concocted
for the benefit of the unthinking portion of the community in his attempted parallel between the case of the Chicago Anarchists and the case of the Confederate
soldiers who were discharged at the close of the war without further punishment. The rebels, Butler says, threw bombs by the ton
and killed thousands of men, and yet they are
"embraced like so many brothers-in-law."

Ben Butler must live in his grave when he
reads the ingenious nonsense he has concocted
for the benefit of the unthinking portion of
the community in his attempted parallel
between the case of the Chicago Anarchists and the case of the Confederate
soldiers who were discharged at the close of the war without further punishment. The rebels, Butler says, threw bombs by the ton
and killed thousands of men, and yet they are
"embraced like so many brothers-in-law."

Ben Butler must live in his grave when he
reads the ingenious nonsense he has concocted
for the benefit of the unthinking portion of
the community in his attempted parallel
between the case of the Chicago Anarchists and the case of the Confederate
soldiers who were discharged at the close of the war without further punishment. The rebels, Butler says, threw bombs by the ton
and killed thousands of men, and yet they are
"embraced like so many brothers-in-law."

MEN OF MARK.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON is a cigarette smoker. The Rev. C. H. Spurgeon is quite restored to health and vigor.

A WEST POINT cadet is taught that a liar is not a gentleman. Gov. REAVER of Pennsylvania is an enthusiast regarding Sunday schools.

The richest man in Vermont is said to be
Col. Estey of Brattleboro. He is worth $3,500.
OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES says that English people are taller, stouter and healthier than New Englanders.

CONGRESSMAN W. L. SCOTT of Pennsylvania has been elected to the Senate. He is worth $10,000 Havana cigars.

FRANK JAMES, the ex-bandit, is to close his corner grocery in Texas and become a salesman for an Atlanta house.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN insists that the purpose he has not yet said.

THOMAS NEWTON of Yale says that the Freshman class this year will number over two hundred and be the largest on record.

WILLIAM B. PAGE of Philadelphia, the champion high jumper of the world, says that he will give up jumping after this season and go into business.

COL. HUGHES-HALLETT, whose domestic affairs have created a sensation in England, is known as the thinnest man physically in the House of Commons.

CHARLES TALBOT, the Memphis hotel clerk who stole Fanny Davenport's diamonds last February, has been sentenced to serve six years in the State Prison.

DON KNOX claims to have discovered Duncan S. KARAN, the former Butler County judge and founder of Karns City, keeping a saloon at Florence, Colo.

The leader of the London Anarchists, Victor DAVE, is 40 years old, slight, and of medium height; his pale face bears yet the traces of his three years' imprisonment for high treason in Germany.

It is proposed by the citizens of Washington to raise a fund of $100,000 for ex-Gov. A. R.
SHEPHERD, who started the improvement of that city. It is said that the ex-Governor is poor and that he is not going.

WASHINGTON BARTLETT as Governor of California, is a stout man weighing two hundred pounds. He wears a full beard. His election to the Lieutenant-Governorship placed him in the first public office he ever held.

This first public office was occupied by Henry WARD BECHER, who was destroyed by fire at Dwight's Crossing, Mass., on Tuesday. It was in a little church, originally a schoolhouse, and has been prized for years because of the famous preacher delivered his first sermon from its primitive house.

Mrs. Cleveland's Great Tact.

From Washington Letter to Cincinnati Enquirer.

which went far towards demonstrating the womanly tact possessed by the wife of the nation's head. Among the many prominent people present was ex-President Hayes. Naturally of a retiring disposition, he did not go to any great extent with the celebrities.
When the time arrived for the Presidential party to take their places on the stage they formed in couples and the ex-President was left without a partner. At this moment the President and Mrs. Cleveland entered the green-room from the proscenium box. Mrs.
Cleveland, with womanly instinct, took in the situation at a glance, and in an instant glided across the floor, pulled the rest of the company, left her hand upon the ex-President's arm and took up her position at the head of the line.
President Cleveland took Chairman Kaseen's arm, and in this order the party filed upon the stage. The whole thing was the work of a second, but it has been the subject of much relief from an embarrassing position, and Mrs. Cleveland had scored another of those inimitable strokes of finesse for which she is noted.

The Kansas Editor Abroad.

From the Kansas City Times.
The Kansas editor is frequently gruff and cross, and the impression is made, but his business hours he mellowed clean through at the thought of Kansas City. After business hours the Kansas editor is an excellent fellow, and when he comes to town he forgets politics and the duties of his office, and he comes around to the Times office and says:
"You've got a town." And then the great heart of Kansas City goes out to the Kansas editor, and he overhauls his time by three or four days, and when he does depart
he is by some means a different man.
The late Mrs. Anna Paul Hendricks of Madison, Mo., was the wife of the first Governor of that State. He was at one time United States Senator, and after his removal to Washington
with him and sat by his side in Congress.
Exposition. For he is a jolly good fellow,
and he does have such a good time.

The Financial Situation.

From the Philadelphia Record.
Such a stringency exists that the Government is compelled with one hand to take money it does not need, with from 6 to 10 per cent, from merchants, and with the other hand to pay out again for unnumbered debts bearing interest at the rate of 4 to 6 per cent.
The fact that the Government is put to this necessity ought not to pass from the memories of the thousands who find themselves compelled to pay out for unnumbered debts
bearing interest at the rate of 4 to 6 per cent.
The fact that the Government is put to this
necessity ought not to pass from the memories of the thousands who find themselves compelled to pay out for unnumbered debts
bearing interest at the rate of 4 to 6 per cent.

THE late Mrs. Anna Paul Hendricks of Madison, Mo., was the wife of the first Governor
of that State. He was at one time United States Senator, and after his removal to Washington
with him and sat by his side in Congress.
Exposition. For he is a jolly good fellow,
and he does have such a good time.

A CALIFORNIA millionaire who died not long ago bequeathed $1,000,000 to the two daughters
of a lawyer at Nashville, Tenn., as a testimonial of gratitude to the lawyer, who loaned
him $100,000 when he first went to California
and was greatly in need of funds.

MRS. EAGLES, an elderly woman of Campbell County, Va., expressed the wish shortly before her death that her gold watch be buried with her. The wish was carried out, and the watch was buried in the night and the watchstone.

MRS. SHERIDAN was regarded as one of the handsomest women seen at the Philadelphia celebration. Her eyes are large, brown and beautiful, and she has a special fancy for beaver costumes, which are an admirable match for those attractive eyes.

THE handsome, eccentric and romantic woman who wears the title of Empress of Austria made the ascent of the Gomsfeld, near Ischl, the other day. Accompanied only by a lady-in-waiting she passed the night in a common Alpine hut, and witnessed a glorious sunrise in the morning.

WHILE Mrs. Cleveland was at the Hotel
Lafayette, Philadelphia, she left the building
by the back way one morning in order to avoid the curious crowd in front of the hotel.
She was obliged to go through the storeroom
and kitchen, climb over boxes of soap, barrels of sugar, and packages and bundles of all kinds. She was very agile and graceful, however, and seemed to enjoy the unwanted experience.

THE Princess Wladimir, who was recently tried for smuggling in Paris and acquitted, has been arrested at Nice of the Circassian Princess, Sergius Kiplani Palenko. The Princess claims that the Prince stole a diamond necklace from her, sold it, and expended the proceeds on the purchase of a house in Paris. The Princess firmly but politely asserts that the Princess gave him the necklace to sell, and that he gave her all the money he obtained for it.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

A Misprint Corrected.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Allow me to correct a misprint in the answers to Correspondents of last night's paper.
The quotation, "I am escaped with the skin of my teeth," occurs in Job xix. 20th, not Job ii, as quoted in the Post-Dispatch.
St. Louis, September 24, 1887.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

A SUBSCRIBER—Gilmore had sixty-five musician with him last season and was able to put a larger army in the field than Russians.

TWO SUBSCRIBERS—America ought to be able to put a larger army in the field than Russians.

A CONSTANT READER—The Browns won the championship of the world from Chicago, on October 1st.

RAIN IN THE FACE—President Cleveland will not be in St. Louis to view the G. A. R. parade.

T. MOORE—For information about the Indian games, see or write to George Munson, Sportsman's Park.

G. A. C.—Chicago claims a population of 600,000, but her figures are much too big. The population of St. Louis is nearly 500,000.

Celestial Harmony.

From the Philadelphia Press.
"Yankee Doodle," the "dixie," "Marching Through Georgia," the "dixie," the "dixie," the American eagle and the rebel yell were all rolled up in the combined product made the music of the Union.

The Other Poet's Plea.

It is well to be on with the new love before the old grows too young.—Life.
It is good to have plenty of gold.
It is good to be on with the new love.
Before you're thrown off by the old.
H. H. T.

Her First Appearance.

From the Sacramento Bee.
Miss —, a contralto of rare excellence, compass and power, made her first appearance in the presence of a select circle of friends and relatives at the residence of Mrs.
J. H. —, Tuesday evening at 6:30. Her singing weight is eight pounds.

A Novel Summer Resort.

Leviathan M. Journal.
I learn that one enterprising Maine family which is in charge of the Poor-farm of that State, finding that there was room and to spare in the establishment, has been taking summer boarders.

A Pleasing Recognition.

San Antonio (Tex.) Enterprise.
The Enterprise continues to advance. Its reporter was called "brother" and asked to pass around the hat at the time of the celebration. The Enterprise bows its acknowledgements.

More Easily Asked Than Answered.

From the Boston Globe.
Eighty-three per cent of the Federal office clerks are Republicans. Still the opposition party is not happy? By the way, which is the opposition party in this State?

Moral.

When trunks show signs of bagging at the knees, it begins to be hard to pay for them.

A Witty Stand.

The fruit peddler never resorts to legal measures.

MR. W. C. STEIGERS

Will call on merchants wishing to contract for advertising in POST-DISPATCH. Telephone 55.

THE FEDERAL COURTS.

JUSTICE MILLER APPOINTS PHOEBE W. COUZINS MARSHAL AT INTERIM.

The Announcement and Order Made This Morning by the Presiding Judge—Comments of Counsel—Setting of the Bar
by the Court—The Confessing Therapeutic of Practice Sharply Defined by the Chief of the Circuit—The Polack &
Kehlor Creditors' Cases.

Phoebé W. Couzins, of the United States Supreme Court just appointed to the position in the United States Circuit Court. He comes here on circuit duty as the presiding Justice of the district to attend to all legal business reserved for a full bench. He was somewhat tardy in his arrival and after briefly exchanging salutations with Judges Brewer and Thayer he passed direct to the case of the bench, the whole bar assembled in the court-room rising as a mark of respect to the distinguished jurist. Justice Miller's pleasant face and substantial form are familiar to the public, and no personal description is needed.

MISS OCTAVIA HILL of Boston recently entered all her tenants, to the number of 700 or 800. Miss Hill will be remembered as the pioneer in house-tenement reform.

MRS. DORNE, Mrs. Thiers' prim little sister-in-law, is immensely rich, and has just disposed of a large part of her wealth in an imposing mausoleum for Thiers' remains.

CITIZEN TRAIN has received a letter from Nina Van Zandt Spies, proxy wife of the Chicago Anarchist, in which she thanks him and urges him to take the rostrum in behalf of the descriptions.

MISS LUCY RICHMOND is the latest dress reformer. She hails from Detroit, and says that the gown for woman is an insignia of serfdom. She favors either trousers or knickerbockers for the fair sex.

The most successful farmer in Georgia is Mrs. Walker, a widow, who resides near Carrollton. She owns several thousand acres, and this year will exceed $20,000.

THE late Mrs. Anna Paul Hendricks of Madison, Mo., was the wife of the first Governor
of that State. He was at one time United States Senator, and after his removal to Washington
with him and sat by his side in Congress.
Exposition. For he is a jolly good fellow,
and he does have such a good time.

A CALIFORNIA millionaire who died not long
ago bequeathed $1,000,000 to the two daughters
of a lawyer at Nashville, Tenn., as a testimonial of gratitude to the lawyer, who loaned
him $100,000 when he first went to California
and was greatly in need of funds.

MRS. EAGLES, an elderly woman of Campbell County, Va., expressed the wish shortly before her death that her gold watch be buried with her. The wish was carried out,
and the watch was buried in the night and the
watchstone.

MRS. SHERIDAN was regarded as one of the handsomest women seen at the Philadelphia celebration. Her eyes are large, brown and beautiful, and she has a special fancy for
beaver costumes, which are an admirable
match for those attractive eyes.

THE handsome, eccentric and romantic
woman who wears the title of Empress of Austria made the ascent of the Gomsfeld, near Ischl, the other day. Accompanied only by a lady-in-waiting she passed the night in a common Alpine hut, and witnessed a glorious
sunrise in the morning.

WHILE Mrs. Cleveland was at the Hotel
Lafayette, Philadelphia, she left the building
by the back way one morning in order to avoid the curious crowd in front of the hotel.
She was obliged to go through the storeroom
and kitchen, climb over boxes of soap, barrels of

THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Is delivered by Carriers at 10 CENTS A WEEK in more than 400 CITIES AND TOWNS in the surrounding States.

BRANCH OFFICES IN THE CITY.

At the following DRUG STORES BRANCH OFFICES have been established, where WANTED ADVERTISEMENTS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS will be received and where the PAPER is kept for sale:

BENTON ST.—1501 O. Sutter (23)
BROADWAY—3000 O. D'Amore (21)
BROADWAY—2613 E. Geisler (29)
BROADWAY—3007 F. Hanna (26)
BROADWAY—3011 F. Waldo (26)
CASS AV.—1857 C. W. Tomford (8)
CHOUTEAU AV.—1500 H. F. Spilker (8)
CHOUTEAU AV.—2837 W. E. Krueger (8)
DOUGLAS ST.—2245 A. & B. Vogt (22)
EASTON AV.—3180 F. C. Pauley (6)
GRAND AV.—1023 T. T. Warm (23)
LEVEE ST.—3701 N. T. Wyrwath (15)
STINNEY AV.—3837 P. E. Fliguet (18)
FRANKLIN AV.—1000 C. Klipstein (8)
FRANKLIN AV.—3340 J. B. Baesler (26)
GAMBLE ST.—2001 A. B. Brann (26)
LAFAYETTE AV.—1800 Philip Kant (30)
LAFAYETTE AV.—2001 C. E. Neubert (10)
MARKET ST.—2031 St. L. Phar. (3)
MORGAN ST.—3745 Johnston & Bro (32)
MORGAN ST.—3030 J. S. Procter (27)
NINTH ST.—3621 O. C. Glass (21)
NINTH ST.—3522 W. D. Tenn (11)
OLIVE ST.—1500 R. Riley (4)
OLIVE ST.—2800 L. J. Repton (18)
OLIVE ST.—3500 A. H. Roth (3)
PARK AV.—1037 G. H. Andrus (11)
SIDNEY ST.—1058 E. DuFour (12)
SALINA ST.—2270 A. P. Kaitzen (28)
TAYLOR AV.—3100 N. G. Wagner (24)
WASHINGTON AV.—2338 T. S. Glenn (26)

SUBURBAN.

EAST ST. LOUIS—Mo. Av. O. F. Kresse
BELLEVILLE, ILL. — Kaercher & Stobberg

It is for sale on all trains and Steamboats leaving St. Louis, and at the following among other, leading points:

Burlington, Kan.—Victor King, Post-Office.
Cherryvale, Kan.—R. S. T. Adel.
Chicago, Ill.—Palmer House, Sherman House, Lake House, Breckinridge & Co., St. L. Tremont House, Grand Pacific Hotel.
Cleveland, O.—News Stand in Depot.
Columbus, Kan.—B. H. Brown (26)
Cincinnati, O.—J. H. H. 164 Vine St.
Canton, Miss.—J. G. H. 164 Vine St.
Dallas, Texas.—J. Jackson.
Denver, Col.—S. Wright, 352 Larimer and 301 Sixteenth; C. W. Partridge, 302 Lawrence St., and St. James Hotel.
Evansville, Ind.—Smith & Butterfield, 129 Main St.
St. Paul, Tex.—Grand Central Hotel.
St. Smith, Ark.—Phillips & Son, Floyd & Collier, Louis Beer, F. A. Brueck (28)
St. Worth, Tex.—D. Graham.
Galena, Kan.—Dana & Dana.
Girard, Kan.—McNair & Springer.
Hannibal, Mo.—N. V. Wolf, 211 Broadway; L. Morris, D. L. Hubbard and D. P. McCarty.
Holly Springs, Miss.—West & Co.
Hot Springs, Ark.—Hotels and News Stands.
Jacksonville, Fla.—J. M. Frost.
Jackson, Miss.—J. M. Frost.
Kansas City, Mo.—Union Depot News Stand; J. F. Cleveland, 556 Cherry St.; J. T. Crosby.
Kenton, Tenn.—D. Graham.
Knoxville, Mo.—D. Lowry, 522 Main St.; Clark & Johnson.
Leadville, Col.—C. F. Gardner & Co., 609 Harrison St.
Louisville, Ky.—B. T. Deering, corner Third and Jefferson.
Memphis, Tenn.—R. M. Mansford, 295 Main St.; John Lane, Citizens News Depot, 285 Main St.
Minneapolis, Minn.—Nicollette House News Stand
New York, N.Y.—Brentano & Co., 5 Union Square.
Metropolitan Hotel, Windsor Hotel.
New Orleans, La.—Geo. Ellis, opposite Post-Office.
New York, N.Y.—F. Goldwater, Crescent News Stand.
Omaha, Neb.—Barkley & Bro., Union Depot.
Owego, Kan.—J. P. Harrison.
Point Point, Tex.—R. P. Bondom.
Portland, Tex.—Louis Dunn, W. W. Swift & Co.
Pittsburg, Kan.—E. H. Ellis.
Quincy, Ill.—J. G. Spindler, 19th St. and T. W. Ward.
San Francisco, Cal.—Scott's Book Store, 22 Third St. and B. C. Wilber, Palace Hotel, and Baldwin Hotel.
Van Buren, Ark.—L. W. Jacques.
Vincennes, Ind.—T. Robinson.
Vicksburg, Miss.—Clarke & Co., 149 Washington St.
Washington, D.C.—R. C. Rrentano Bros., 1012 Pennsylvania St.; William's Hotel.
Wichita, Kan.—Wichita News Company, and Occidental Hotel.
The Post-Dispatch is on file in Europe at London office, 52 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross, and at The American Exchange, 449 Strand; also at C. A. Gillies, 9 Strand, Charing Cross, London, England; and American Exchange, 35 Boulevard des Capucines, Paris, France.

Parties advertising in these Columns and having the answers addressed in care of POST-DISPATCH, will please ask for check, to enable them to get their letters, as none will be delivered except on presentation of check. All answers to advertisements should be enclosed in envelopes. Parties answering advertisements must have their replies directed to their own POST-OFFICE address.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

NOTICE—The gentlemen of the Catholic Parish are invited to attend a meeting Thursday, 3 p. m., at St. Louis Cathedral, to consider the proposed Papal Jubilee procession, Eugene Corle, Pastor.

LODGE NOTICES.

WINGENUD LODGE No. 27, T. O. O. F., will hold a regular meeting at 10 o'clock on Tuesday evening, September 26, at 9 o'clock. Members will please be present to receive the new work. Visiting Brethren—J. M. BILDER, Jr., Secretary.

ATTENTION, COMPANIONS!

Honor, meet every Wednesday at 8 p. m., at Franklin Hall, N. W. corner of 10th and Franklin. Visitors cordially welcome. B. SWENEY, Secretary.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.

WANTED—Situations by single man as cookman; thoroughly experienced in hotel and restaurant; first-class city ref. Ad. O. 17, this office, 26

Boys.

WANTED—Situations by boys; address W. D. Sheridan, 1207 S. Broadway.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—One waiter, cook and dining-room girl; address W. D. Sheridan, 1207 S. Broadway.

Writers.

WANTED—One waiter, cook and dining-room girl; address W. D. Sheridan, 1207 S. Broadway.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—A young man; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

Book-keepers.

WANTED—A young man; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

Short-hand.

THE MACHINE AND PENCIL SYSTEMS are both taught at Bryant & Stratton's Business and Short-hand School, corner Broadway and Market st. Our methods of instruction will save to the pupil one-third the time and expense of learning short-hand, and send for circular.

Clerks and Salesmen.

BUSINESS, SHORTHAND AND ENGLISH TRAINING SCHOOL, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT, corner Broadway and Market st. St. Louis. Graduates are successful in obtaining employment. Send for circular.

The Trades.

WANTED—Good carpenter, 214 Locust st. 58

WANTED—Tailor to press pants, 1110 Market st. 54

WANTED—A barber immediately. Apply at 710 N. 5th st. 58

WANTED—A good shoemaker immediately. Apply at 1011 N. 5th st. 58

WANTED—Two good tinners for outside work. 58

WANTED—Three staff-builders at once at Chas. Letourneau's, 3745 Salina st. 58

WANTED—Six good carpenters at 3823 S. Jefferson st. 58

WANTED—Book-binders and cutting machine. Chas. B. Woodward Co., 911-919 5th st. 58

WANTED—Four painters who had about twenty years experience. A. J. Dodd, Weber & Groves, Mo. 58

WANTED—20 bricklayers; four months' work on a new building, report mentioned. Apply at Union av. Wm. Skrakins & Co. 58

WANTED—One hundred cords of hoop and head timber, price 200; steady work. Apply at factory Kansas City Wooden Ware Company, Arkansas City, Mo. 58

WANTED—Four sausage-makers and two butchers to go to Memphis; good salary and steady employment paid to date. Apply Tuesday at 20 st. between 9 and 11 a. m. 58

Boys.

WANTED—A boy to carry bundles. Call 16 S. 9th st. 54

WANTED—A boy to clean horses. 16 S. 9th st. 54

WANTED—A boy to deliver groceries. Call immediately at 4095 Olive st. 61

WANTED—A boy to deliver groceries for the Astoria Laundry, No. 8 N. 14th st. 54

WANTED—A boy aged from 15 to 20 to drive a horse on S. N. Broadway. 54

WANTED—Stout boy about 16 to wash bottles. Call at 1610 Riddle st. about 6 p. m. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A German boy, about 14 or 15 years old, to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

WANTED—A boy to assist in walking and carrying goods. 1610 Riddle st. 61

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Experienced landress for two days in week. Ref. 217 Washington av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first-class landress; one that has been in the store before. Call at 1021 Franklin av. 54

WANTED—A first

THE V. P. BALL SAYS G.A.R.

That "all faithful followers who attend his yearly Ball must come in full dress." This is the royal edict. We have 1,000 finest Broadcloth Swallow-Tail Coats and Vests, cut and trimmed a la mode.

TERMS AS USUAL. Come in time and select your coat; sizes 33 to 42.

Leading Clothiers, Shoers, Hatters, Furnishers, Cloakers and Milliners.

BROADWAY AND MORGAN.

CITY NEWS.

Tailoring.

Have your clothing made up at the popular tailoring department of D. Crawford & Co.'s great Broadway bazar, who show by far the largest stock of domestic and imported wools in the West, all purchased for cash from first hands. Prices on clothing warranted to be from 25 to 75 per cent below exclusive merchant tailors' prices. No fit, no sale.

East feet and beautiful hands at Kenison's, 223 1/2 Olive street. Corns, 25c; hands, 50c.

Dr. E. C. Chase, 922 Olive street. Set of teeth, 18.

Private matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsbeer, 514 Pine st.

Dr. Whittier, 617 St. Charles. Cures diseases of indiscretion, indulgence. Call or write.

EAST ST. LOUIS.

Items of Interest From the City Beyond the Big Bridge.

The City Council will hold a special meeting this evening, and the session promises to be an unusually interesting one. The call for the meeting was sent at the instance of Aldermen Russell, Egan, Tefft, Marsh, Cunningham and Strecker, and the business set down for transaction is the consideration of the suspension of the C. K. of I. Branch No. 2, held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon and adjourned to join the Papal procession in St. Louis next Sunday in the Papal procession. Mr. McVilly was chosen Grand Marshal and the procession will be held on the 10th of October. The procession will be held on the 10th of October. The procession will be held on the 10th of October.

The C. K. of I. Branch No. 2, held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon and adjourned to join the Papal procession in St. Louis next Sunday in the Papal procession. Mr. McVilly was chosen Grand Marshal and the procession will be held on the 10th of October. The procession will be held on the 10th of October. The procession will be held on the 10th of October.

A motion for a rehearing made by the plaintiff in the case of Nicholas Spangnall vs. the Chicago & Alton Railroad Company, was argued in the City Court this morning.

John Hinsel, a switchman in the bridge yards, while attempting to "cut" a train Saturday evening, got his foot caught between two rails and was knocked down and crushed to death. Coroner Woods held an inquest this morning and rendered a verdict of accidental death. After the inquest the body was shipped to Greenburg, Pa., where the deceased has relatives residing.

This evening Wagoner Post of Lebanon, Heckler Post of Belleville, Col. R. Post of O'Fallon, Brooks Post of Brookings, and the Mascoutah and Madison Posts of A. R. will be received at the Relay Depot by Mr. Dowell Post of this city and march to St. Louis.

The widow of Christy Nolan has received a check for $2,000 from the C. of I. of which society her husband was a member.

Next Friday evening a special meeting of the Board of Highway Commissioners will be held at Town Clerk Tiesler's office for the purpose of opening bids for the construction of a new bridge over Cahokia Creek, near the Stock Yards.

The weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at the Franklin School-house will be held on Wednesday, instead of Tuesday evening, this week and next.

Mrs. Margaret Proetz died yesterday in the 72d year of her age at the residence of her son-in-law, Wendelin Huesche, on the Belleville Road. The funeral took place to-day to St. Peter's Cemetery.

Mr. J. S. McWherry will be glad to meet his old friends and customers at FAMOUS, in clothing department, second floor.

A BALD-KNOBBED CRIME.

John Hardcastle, a Poor Arkansas Farmer, Brutally Murdered. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., September 26.—A murder by what is believed to be a branch of the Missouri Bald-Knobsers, was reported yesterday from Mountain View. John Hardcastle, a farmer living near that village, had been warned to leave the country by men who held a grudge against him. Hardcastle is a large, sturdy man and had a large family. His house was a rude log cabin and he supported his wife and children by cultivating a small tract of land. He started in a wagon with his family and effects for the Arkansas River. After traveling three or four miles he halted, having heard his name pronounced by some one hidden in the underbrush. He called him a hog-thief and dared him to show himself. Hardcastle grasped his gun and advanced a few paces, when two men opened fire on him, riddling him with bullets. Five men have been arrested charged with the crime.

OUR $15.00 Banquet-tailor-made suits equal anything made to order at $25. FAMOUS.

IN SOCIETY.

ITEMS OF INTEREST GATHERED IN LOCAL SOCIAL CIRCLES TO-DAY.

Arrival of Visitors to Attend the Carnival and the Velled Prophets' Ball-Society Notes, Gossip and Personal.

Mrs. Minnie Brown is expected home this week.

Mrs. J. M. Myers has removed to 3747 Finney avenue.

Mrs. J. Pratter has returned from a short visit to friends.

Mrs. May Reynolds is entertaining a young lady from Carrollton.

Mr. Geo. D. Barnard returned on Friday from a short trip East.

Mrs. Harry Hudson has returned her sister from a short visit in the country.

Mrs. Charles Wood has returned from a visit to relatives in Iowa, Mo.

Mr. John W. Stearns of Cincinnati, O., is in the city stopping with friends.

Miss Ella Corbet of Baltimore will spend Fair week with relatives in the city.

Mrs. Louisa Pratt is expected home this week from a visit to her old home.

Miss Ida Nichols is entertaining her friend, Miss Smith of Sedalia, Mo.

Mrs. E. A. Hitchcock and family are expected home on the 1st of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Delaney of Springfield are in the city visiting friends.

Miss Lydia Westerman returned last week from a visit to friends in Louisville, Ky.

Miss Grace Hudson left the latter part of last week to visit friends in St. Charles, Mo.

Miss Elizabeth and sister of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of friends on Pine street.

Mrs. C. H. Anderson will entertain during the week the Rev. Mr. Leighton, who arrived this week and will visit friends at 222 Olive street.

Mrs. Thomas Sullivan of Lucas avenue is expected this week relatives from Dayton, Ohio.

Mrs. Wm. Young is home again after a visit to friends and relatives in the interior of the State.

Miss Una Tevis of Lexington, Mo., will spend next week with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fleming.

Miss Emma Whitelaw, who is visiting friends at Grand Rapids, is expected home this week.

Miss Lillian Kingston is visiting friends in the city, but is expected home the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Henry D. Laughlin returned last week from Washington City, where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. D. E. Smith and family have returned home after spending a very pleasant summer in Kentucky.

The Misses Spencer, daughters of Dr. Spencer, leave on Wednesday for Brooklyn where they will attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fleming of 3511 Chestnut street, are entertaining his mother, Mrs. Fleming of Lexington, Mo.

Miss Lily Wheaton is expected home the latter part of this week from Florence, Ala., where she has been visiting friends.

Misses Fay Hyde and Eva Kelly have returned from Colorado, where they have been for some time past with friends.

Mrs. E. B. Grant of Delmar place is entertaining her sister, Mrs. J. Wesley Poe, and Mrs. H. M. Newell of Genoa, Ill.

Miss Ella Curry, who has been for the past two months visiting friends in the city, has returned to her home in Sturgeon.

Miss Helen Tutt has returned from a visit to Booneville and will entertain friends during the week at her home in Kirkwood.

Mrs. Care of 3100 Olive street is expecting the arrival to-day of her mother from the East. She will remain until after the 1st of October.

Mr. A. D. Brown of 310 Pine street will entertain his mother during the fall festivities.

Mrs. A. C. Huff, of Salem, Va., will remain in the city during the month of October.

Mr. A. Jacobs will be in the city during the month of October.

Mr. J. L. Curby on Grand avenue and Chestnut street.

Mrs. Judge Cutter of Marietta, O., will arrive in the city this week, and will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Carter of 2821 Olive street.

Mrs. Frank Ridgely is expecting the arrival this week of Dr. and Mrs. John Wiggins of Cincinnati, O. They will remain until after the Fair.

Mr. E. Edmunds, formerly of St. Louis, spent last week in the city with friends. He returned to his home in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday last.

Mrs. Judge Valliant, who went East to enter her son at Princeton College, returned home on Saturday. She spent the past two weeks in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Starks and family of 3512 Chestnut street returned to the latter part of last week, after a pleasant trip of two months in the North and East.

Mrs. Mattie Reynolds, who has been for some time past with friends in the country, has returned to the city, and is located at the Southern for the winter.

Miss Mamie W. Sappington of Madison, Wis., is visiting her cousin, Miss Anna R. White of 2810 Washington avenue. She will remain during the carnival.

Miss Minnie Parks of Auburn, Ill., arrived in the city last night and is the guest of Miss Marie Huff of Washington avenue. Miss Parks will remain until after the festivities.

Capt. Thomas Turner and his daughters, Miss Julia Turner and Miss Katie Turner, returned to the city last night, where they have been all summer visiting the various resorts.

Miss Ella Downing of Louisville, Ky., is now in Chicago visiting friends. She will be in St. Louis on the 12th of October and will be the guest of the Misses Mosick of Twenty-sixth and Pine streets.

Miss Moody of Vicksburg, Miss., arrived in the city this week, after spending the past two months at the Eastern watering places. She will be the guest of Mrs. James Scullin of 512

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

OUR GRAPES

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we might reasonably be accused of dwindling into maudlin sentimentality; but being one of you is immeasurably in our favor. It enables us to know you thoroughly; to study what you want to wear and when you want to wear it, and we pride ourselves that we well know how to supply it. There has always been in our firm a strong spirit of "business magnetism" to coin a new phrase, which has been and is now all-powerful in attracting toward us the latest effects in woolen goods, the most artistic of designers, the best of tailors, the most wide-awake buyers, the most genial salesmen, and a very generous patronage. Those advantages, combined with our determination to sell on a very low margin of profit, have placed us where we are to-day and where we intend to remain—at the head and front of the ready-made clothing business. Would-be competitors cannot expect to eat the fruit from another man's vine. They cannot reasonably hope to attain success and reputation when successful methods and principles are lacking. That is why we sometimes hear the cry of SOUR GRAPES.

With an apology to the memory of the author of the fable "The Fox and the Grapes" for having increased the number of Foxes to suit the exigency of the case in hand. As the story was written ages ago, we would suggest that the fox family has increased. Of that we have daily proof.

Being strictly a St. Louis Institution we claim the neighborly privilege of dropping in upon you once more for the purpose of enjoying a friendly chat with regard to our merchandise and our methods. We understand fully that if we claimed patronage wholly on the ground of being a St. Louis firm we

